

Global Women's Rights Forum

20th Anniversary

March 8 and 9

Free and open to the public!

Monday 3/8

Panel: 9:15 - 10:20 am

"Building an Integrated Support System for Survivors of Sexual Violence in Tanzania"

Presentation: 10:30 - 11:35 am

"Frida Kahlo: The Bold Mexican Painter Who Found Her Artistic Voice in 'Gringolandia'"

Panel: 11:45 - 12:50 pm

"Violence against Black Women and Resistance in Brazil"

Gallery Walk/Panel 1:00 - 2:05 pm

"Gendered Ecologies"

Panel: 2:15 - 3:20 pm

"Violence against Indigenous Women and Resistance in Brazil"

Writing Workshop: 3:30 - 4:35 pm

"Memories, Migrations, and Movements: Situating Womxn of Color Voices in the Diaspora"

Edit-A-Thon: 4:45 - 6:00 pm

"Art + Feminism Wikipedia Edit-A-Thon"

Presentation: 6:30 - 8:00 pm

"The Women of USF Timeline Project, presented by PACSW"

Tuesday 3/9

Panel: 9:55 - 11:40 pm

"Reclaiming Media, Making Systemic Change"

Panel: 12:45 - 2:30 pm

"Critical Feminist Perspectives on Leadership"

Teach-in: 2:40 - 4:25 pm

"A Critical Feminist Teach-in"

Panel: 4:35 - 6:20 pm

"Chopping it up: Bay Area Chefs Discuss Gender and the Food Industry"

Performance: 6:30 - 8:00 pm

"May the Feminine Rule"

<https://bit.ly/2Z0foRK>

Registration Required!

Co-Sponsored by:

Dean of Arts and Sciences, Gender and Sexuality Studies, Critical Diversity Studies, Leo T. McCarthy Center for Public Service and the Common Good, USF School of Law, President's Advisory Committee on the Status of Women, Media Studies, Sociology, Politics, International Studies, Philosophy, African American Studies, History, Latin American Studies, Center for Asia Pacific Studies, Chicanx Latinx Studies, Swig Program in Jewish Studies and Social Justice, Center for Latinx Studies in the Americas, University Ministry, Communication Studies, Master in Migration Studies, Environmental Studies